The screenshot displays the 'Listening > Detail: Understanding numbers' page. At the top, there is a 'Menu' bar with a 'Marking' button. Below the menu, there are navigation buttons for 'Back' and 'Forward'. The main content area contains a text box with the following text: 'Listening for detail. A key skill in lectures and academic exams is your ability to pick out details accurately: numbers, names, formulae and so on. First click the audio buttons to listen. Then click on the gaps and choose the correct number in each sentence.' Below this text is a list of 10 numbered gaps (1-10) for a listening exercise. To the right of the gaps is a photograph of a lecture hall. On the left side of the interface, there is a vertical menu with icons and labels: 'Learning objective' (umbrella icon), 'Progress' (bar chart icon), 'Notepad' (notepad icon), 'Print' (printer icon), and 'Recorder' (microphone icon).
